THE SWELTERING FIFTH.

Notes About Our Boys in Camp—A Great Time.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Aug. 22.
Special Correspondence to THE REVIEW.

Although the weather turned much warmer Wednesday night, after a slight rain the militia put up a most admirable exhibition yesterday morning, which was pronounced by military judges to be the greatest ever seen this year here. The most difficult evolutions were maneuvered with true and exact precision, and the 300 adherents of company I, of Jacksonville, who, with their famous band, came over in the morning, departed last night more than repaid for their visit and placed with the hospitality extended them by the entertaining officers.

Company II went on inspection yesterday morning, and was pronounced O. K., their weapons being marvels of beauty.

The detail for guard duty was composed:
J. Spaulding, H. Wanta, S. Smallwood, H.
Pinkerton, under Corp. Topping. They were relieved at guard mount at 7 in the morning.

The hospital crew is enjoying a little rest now, the only patient from company II being Private Murphy, who is suffering from an attack of "seasickness," but is expected to survive, barring no relapse.

There were quite a number of guests at company quarters after dress parade, among whom a hungry glance revealed Dr. Eddy, Capt. West and a number of zouaves in full uniform.

The engineers, with which the Y. M. C. A. tent is beset with requests every evening for THE REVIEW is only excelled by the activity of the men in responding to the mess call, and even the personals are read.

At between 10 and 11 in the morning the entire regiment formed and followed the regimental band to the parade gates, where Governor Fifer and staff in carriages were received and escorted to headquarters.

In the evening the grand review took place, and never before this year was Camp Lincoln so filled with an admiring audience. It seemed as though all Springfield and surrounding towns had turned out in a body, and when the Jacksonville military band closed their perfect drill their enthusiasm knew no bounds.

The food is much better than at first, and Private M— said he had more trouble in avoiding food poisoning than anything else.

The band concert last night was largely attended.

All the boys are saving extra collars in anticipation of the Decatur crowd Sunday.

THE FINISHING TOUCHES.

The Grand Opera House Almost Completed—Opening Arrangements.

The immense transparency of Powers' Grand Opera House was hung yesterday just below the third story windows, and while it does not look quite so big as it did when in the ground, it shows up to good advantage and may be seen any where on Water street. At night, when illuminated, it will stand out in the darkness with great prominence.

Inside, the rich plush moquette carpet is now down on the first floor, and about all the hangings and draperies are in place.
They are of finest silks and velvets, in beautiful colors, rich, but harmonious and perfect in taste.

The piano, which was made especially for this opera house by Haines Bros., came Tuesday, and was on exhibition yesterday at Prescott's. It is a handsome cabinet upright in a rosewood case finished to correspond with the woodwork of the interior of the opera house. The tone is adapted to such a large hall, and will fill it completely.

There is not the slightest doubt about the house being ready for opening on the 24th and 25th. As may be seen by the advertisement elsewhere, the auction of the choicer of seats will take place at the St.
Nicholas on Thursday, Aug. 23, with J. W.
Race as auctioneer.

The opening on the 24th of September will be a brilliant and notable event in the history of this part of the state.
The dedicatory address just before the beginning of the first performance, will be made by Ex-Gov. Richard J. Oglesby.

Happily Wedded.

John G. Combes and Miss Jeannette Miller, of Decatur, were married at 5 o'clock last night at the home of Mrs. J. W. North-water street. The ceremony was performed solemnly by Rev. Charles Manchester, pastor of the Church of God. The couple were preceded to their place under a magnificent arch of flowers and evergreens by little Opal Miller, the 4-year old niece of the bride, who, dressed in white, made a lovely bridesmaid as she did her part, and handed the bride a beautiful bouquet of rare flowers. The bride was attired in a handsome dress of green albatross, trimmed with gold braid, and with natural flowers for ornaments. After the ceremony an elegant wedding supper was enjoyed.

The wedding were Jesse and Charles Combes and Miss Ada Combe, brothers and sister of the groom, John G. Keeler, Misses Lizzie Fischer, Wilma Griffith and Will Mc-Duffett, all of Monticello; George F. and William Miller and families, of DeLand, Ill.; Miss Lulu Miller, of Terre Haute, Ind.; and J. M. Miller, wife and family, of Wichita, Kan.; J. R. Davall, John M. and R. A. Miller, Al Thompson, and Mrs. J. M.
James, of Decatur.

There were many fine presents, some of them quite valuable. Mr. and Mrs. Combes will leave for a trip to several cities in the west, and on their return will go to housekeeping in the home already prepared on the groom's farm in Monticello township, in Piatt county.

United States Liquor Law Cases.

Major J. H. Connolly, district United States attorney, came over from Springfield yesterday to prosecute the United States liquor cases brought before Commissioner Randolph. Besides Charles S. Jones, of Clampaign, and Jud Thompson, of Lovington, whose arrest was mentioned, Henry L. Perry, of Monticello, was brought in by Deputies Elbert and Cavanaugh. Jones and Perry are each held in $200 bonds, and Thompson's case was continued until next Monday. He was remanded to jail in the meantime.

The Piatt County Fair.

Yesterday was a big day at Monticello.
Estimates place the number of people on the grounds at 15,000. Perhaps 75 people went from Decatur.

The races were quite interesting, so far as they went. The pacing race, in which Monkey Rollo and S. P. Bonds were entered, was won by the former, in 2:30. The trotting race was won by M. Lass.

To-day Billy G will be in a race, and will be driven by William D. Day, who won with Nettle B. in three straight heats at Homer yesterday.

D. B. Culp fell down just away at the store of George S. D. Miller & Co. yesterday, and striking the back of his head, was stunned, but not seriously hurt.

THE RAILROAD NOTES.

J. S. Goodrich, of the Wabash, went to Chicago yesterday.

D. H. Conklin and Andrew Stevens were at Monticello yesterday.

William King, the target gentleman, is taking a trip through the west.

Walter Strunge and E. A. West, of the T. H. & P. offices, went to Springfield yesterday.

The Illinois Central has resumed work in its ballast factory at Kankakee, with a force of 20 men.

It is stated that 25 engineers from the C.
B. & Q. road are now running on the Illinois Central.

Ed Willis and John Hayden, employees of the Illinois Central, took in the Monticello fair yesterday.

By its newly proposed financial deal the Northern Pacific road will increase its indebtedness $40,000,000.

Fred Beecher's fast horse has hurt its foot, and in consequence he does not go faster than three minutes.

The Illinois Central folks put on a water train this week and is hauling water for use at Pana, from the Sangamon river.

The I. D. & W. took about 25 people to Indianapolis yesterday morning, on the expression, to see the soldiers' monument unveiled.

Charles Keyes, roadmaster of the P. D. & E., has taken a leave and gone east. William Drake, of Peoria, is performing his duties in the meantime.

Fred Beecher goes to Jacksonville this morning to settle up the accounts of Roadmaster Melville, who goes off on account of the recent consolidation of districts.

General Manager Charles M. Hayes, General Superintendent H. L. McGee, and other Wabash officials, were here last night.
They have started out on a tour of inspection of the whole road, and will leave this morning for Effingham. From there they will go west.

A. D. Dwyell, late assistant general passenger and ticket agent of the Wabash, has been appointed assistant general passenger agent of the Central Iowa railroad, and will have full charge of the passenger department of that company. His office will be at Marshalltown, Ia.

The Pennsylvania Railroad company is about to adopt a policy toward its employes more important than any in its history. Arrangements are being made to establish a pension system in connection with the company's relief association. It will be the first of its kind in the United States.

Steve Randall, a popular Wabash engineer, has had his old engine painted and fixed up in grand style. Its number is 156 and it is a huster, having made the time between Jacksonville Junction and Springfield in 35 minutes. The distance is 107 miles—quite a record.

Jay Gould is said to be a bull on the Wabash. He has 5,000,000 of the original Wabash stock which, years ago, cost him much more than the stock will sell for, and he has been paying heavy assessments. However, the phenomenally large earnings of the road at the present time is a good argument to bull the stock with.

Will Williams, one of the most obliging pleasant-mannered and intelligent railroad porters that ever looked after the comfort of any load of passengers, went through here yesterday on an extra chair car, and announced his intention of resigning as soon as the trip was finished. He has been given a run from Clymers to Detroit, which he does not want. He expects to go to work for the Pullmans. The many passengers on the St. Louis and Chicago line will be sorry to miss him.

Associated a Tarantula.

A live tarantula was found in a bunch of bananas yesterday, in a car load that was being unloaded by G. W. Ehrhart & Co.
The boys were somewhat frightened when the frightful-looking thing hopped out as active and ferocious in appearance as though on his native heath. He was captured alive, however, and taken to Blaine's drug store, where he was chloroformed and placed on exhibition in the front window.

The finding of tarantulas in bananas is of frequent occurrence, but they are generally so stupid and so near dead by cold as to be almost lifeless.

G. C. O. F. Festival.

The members of Eljah lodge, G. C. O. F.
No. 2,359, gave a musical entertainment at the Grand armory last night that was largely attended and greatly enjoyed. It was quite profitable, as well, the refreshment tables being liberally patronized. The program included, besides essays, solos, duets and recitations, an address by Rev. J.
S. Wood, on "The Social and Political Influence of Friends and Foes." The music of Mrs. L. G. Jordan deserves special mention.

Important Sales.

E. W. Stively sold his place at 545 West William, to J. A. Roney, yesterday. The consideration was $2,500, and the sale was made through Pritchett & Walmsley.

An important cash sale was made yesterday by B. W. Dillehunt, who transferred his residence property at 222 West William street, to M. M. Martin, master car builder of the Wabash, for $6,500. The trade was made by Randolph & Co.

Mrs. Woodworth Moves.

Springfield Register.
Mrs. M. B. Woodworth, the faith-cure evangelist, left yesterday on the noon train for Chicago, where she will continue her evangelical meetings. There were about 50 of her followers at the C. & A. depot to bid her good-bye. They sang songs and in other ways testified to their regret at her departure. Quite a number were crying as the train pulled out and left them without a leader.

Arm Dislocated.

Miss May Gregory, a member of the family of W. H. Bramble, fell while trying roller-skates on the sidewalk Wednesday evening, and dislocated her right arm. She thought nothing was the matter, however, and did nothing for it. After a sleepless night on account of intense pain, she was taken to Dr. Cass Chenoweth, and he put the arm in place.

A Street Car Excursion.

Supt. W. L. Ferguson made a tour of inspection over the new lines on East. Eldorado and Condit streets last night. He used for the purpose one of the North Water street open cars, and was accompanied by several ladies.

Springfield Excursion.

Don't forget the Goodman band excusion to Springfield Sunday. The Decatur band is in charge, and there will be a can of bull baiting, at Evansville and Springfield. Only $1 for the round trip.

Sold Out.

The shoe store of M. I. Massey has been sold to Walter Hutchin. An invoice was being taken yesterday, and Mr. Hutchin will soon be in possession.

Attorney Fees.

Under the new law attorneys' fees can be taxed in cases where a mechanic, artisan, miner, laborer or servant, sues for wages.
The law provides that whenever one of the above shall have cause to bring suit for his or her wages earned and due and owing, according to the terms of the employment, and he or she shall establish by the decision of the court or jury that the amount for which he or she has brought suit is justly due and owing, and that a demand has been made in writing, at least three days before suit is brought, for a sum not exceeding the amount so found due and owing, then it shall be the duty of the court before which the case shall be tried to allow to the plaintiff, when the foregoing facts appear, a reasonable attorney fee, in addition to the amount found due and owing for wages, and in justice court such attorney's fees shall not be less than $5, and in the county or circuit court, not less than $10, to be taxed as costs of suit.

Under the above law it is thought that the litigation will decrease, and that laborers will not be delayed in obtaining their wages.

S. S. Convention.

The Sunday school convention of Decatur township was held yesterday at the First Presbyterian church. The program was carried out as published, except that the address assigned to Dr. W. F. Calhoun, on the subject, "How to Conduct a Teachers' Meeting," was omitted, the doctor being forced by press of business to decline the appointment.

The address by Rev. W. C. Miller, of the Congregational church at night, on "The Relation of the Sunday School Teacher to His Scholar," was thoroughly well received to the large audience, pointed and witty, and an unusually useful paper, full of ideas that any teacher or pupil would be benefited by hearing.

Mrs. Barnhart's Funeral.

The funeral of Mrs. Henry Barnhart was held yesterday afternoon at the residence, were, John A. Barnes, Cyrus Hubbard, Peter Williams, Harry Fisk, G. R. Steen, and Z. W. Harris.

Death of a Child.

A child, one week old, of J. L. Rogers, died at 6 o'clock last night at the residence in Milan town ship. The funeral will be held to-day at the Presbyterian church at Prairie Home.

We, Whitney Will Talk.

Instead of the usual sermon Sunday morning by Rev. W. C. Miller, at the Congregational church, there will be an address by John O. Whitney, the new general secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

THE REAL SECRET OF THE UNPARALLELED SUCCESS OF THIS CHICAGO DAILY NEWS MAY BE FOUND IN TWO DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS, WHICH MORE THAN ANYTHING ELSE HAVE CONTRIBUTED TO ITS REMARKABLE GROWTH.

FIRST—It is a Daily Paper for Busy People.
The people of the busy West appreciate keenly the necessity of an intelligible knowledge of the world's daily doings, but they are too busy to waste valuable time in searching through a cumbersome "blanket-sheet" newspaper for the real news of art, literature, science, religion, politics, and the thousand and one things which make up modern civilization. They want news—all the news—but they don't want it concealed in an overpowering mass of the trivial and inconsequential. It is because THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS is "all wheat and no chaff" that its circulation is over 4½ million a week.

SECOND—It is an Independent Truth-telling Newspaper. The people demand a fair, impartial, independent newspaper, which gives all the news, and gives it free from the taint of partisan bias. With no more political ambition to gratify, so "as to grind," the impartial, independent newspaper may truly be called "guide, philosopher and friend" to honest men of every shade of political faith; and this is why THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS has today a circulation of over 4½ million a week.

THE CHICAGO DAILY NEWS now adds to these two comprehensive elements of popularity, a third
